Who We Are

Miss Tourism was founded in 1998 as America's Miss Tourism. As girls and women from outside the United States asked to take part, it grew into International Miss Tourism and then into today's Worlds Miss Tourism and National Miss Tourism programs.

Our mission: to empower girls and women ages 7 and up through confidence, personal growth, communication, community involvement, tourism promotion and meaningful titleholder experiences.

More than a pageant: the goal is growth you can see, in confidence, communication, service and leadership, plus a title you actually use in the real world.

Beginner-friendly by design: no pageant experience is needed. 70% of our winners were first-time competitors. There is no swimsuit competition.

Choose Your Tourism Path

One mission, two paths. Both share the same spirit: confidence, service, tourism and growth. Everyone competes at the same World Finals in Nashville.

During Ballroom Events

- Doors stay closed while contestants are on stage. No entry or exit until a break.
- Please stay seated. Moving around while a contestant is performing is very distracting.

Before Finals Begin

No contestants or families in or near the ballroom on Wednesday or Thursday before early registration. Staff are setting up, and each interruption sets us back an hour.

Reigning & Legacy Queens

Please stay at your stations until breaks, and don't hang out by the staff table near the stage. Returning and Legacy Queens, please find a spot for your belongings. The staff can't hold or be responsible for personal items.

Electronic Devices

Phones and cameras may not be used in the ballroom. This protects the work of our photographer and videographer and lets everyone enjoy the moment. Points may be deducted from your contestant if a family member even looks like they're recording or taking photos. Let the professionals capture the magic!

Photos, Video & Outside Vendors

Our photographer and videographer work hard to capture beautiful memories, and you can buy photos at the event or afterward. Hair and makeup, and photo/video, are outside vendors: pay them directly and contact them with any questions. Please don't contact Miss Tourism staff about outside vendors.

Keep It Clean

Pick up after yourselves. No wrappers, cups, cans or napkins left behind. There are trash bins all over the ballroom and hotel.

Hotel Etiquette

- Be respectful of other hotel guests, and keep noise down, especially at night.
- Bring makeup wipes or your own towels to remove makeup.
- No loose glitter.
- Check with the hotel before sticking anything to your door.
- Be careful about sharing who is in your room (young girls) with strangers, through door decorations, social media or conversation. Safety means protecting our girls, so we never share the location of the host hotel publicly.
- Represent Miss Tourism with kindness and class.

Required Competitions

Communication · Personality · Impact · Poise. Four different ways to show the judges who you are and how ready you are to represent.

All contestants must compete in Interview, Photogenic, Introduction/Impact and Evening Gown. Each is 25% of your total score. There is no swimsuit competition. The Top 5 in Jr. Teen, Teen and Miss also compete in an on-stage question. Miss Tourism emphasizes confidence, communication, leadership, service, tourism, presence and age-appropriate competition.

COMPETITION	SCORE	WHEN	WHAT TO WEAR
Interview	25%	Fri, Jul 23, starting 9:30 AM	Light blue cocktail dress
Photogenic	25%	Photos turned in at early registration, Thu, Jul 22	No crowns or sashes in the photo
Introduction/Impact	25%	Sat, Jul 24, 10:30 AM	Light blue cocktail dress
Evening Gown	25%	Sat, Jul 24, 12:30 PM	Floor-length evening gown

Interview (25%)

Be prepared. Be present. Be yourself.

What this competition develops: the closed-room interview builds real-world communication skills in a professional, supportive setting. Judges ask age-appropriate questions and look for a contestant who can listen, think, connect and represent Miss Tourism with confidence.

FORMAT

- Ages 7–12: Round Robin style, 3 minutes with each judge.
- Ages 13 and up: prepare for both Round Robin (3 minutes with each judge) and Judge Panel (5 minutes total).

JUDGES ARE LOOKING FOR

- Clear communication and active listening.
- Poise under pressure.
- Genuine, thoughtful, age-appropriate answers.
- A warm, professional presence.
- Press readiness and public representation skills.
- Jr. Teen and up: understanding of the Miss Tourism mission and the titleholder role.

Wardrobe: light blue cocktail dress. Embellishment is allowed. Choose something polished, age-appropriate and comfortable.

Prep your story: know why you joined, what your title means, what you did with it and what you care about.

Your Contestant Resume: every contestant turns one in at registration. It isn't scored, but the judges use it during Interview to find familiar topics to talk about with you. Use the In School or Out of School version.

Photogenic (25%)

Your strongest photo should feel polished, natural and press-ready.

NO CROWNS OR SASHES | LIGHT RETOUCHING ALLOWED | NO AI PHOTO SUBMISSIONS

- Label each extra entry as Photo Submission #1, #2, #3 and so on.
- No crowns or sashes.

JUDGES ARE LOOKING FOR

- A strong, positive first impression.

- Age-appropriate wardrobe, styling, makeup and pose.
- Clear, well-lit image quality.
- Light or natural retouching, not heavy editing.
- An image that looks ready for press, appearances and promotion.

PHOTO STRATEGY

- Choose a photo that still looks like you.
- Avoid distracting backgrounds and heavy filters.
- Eyes and expression matter more than elaborate styling.
- Print from a high-resolution file, and save the exact file you printed.

Press ready: polished, natural, still recognizably you.

Introduction/Impact (25%)

Your title becomes powerful when you can explain what you did with it. Your voice, your year, your impact.

The moment you use your voice: this required stage competition asks each contestant to introduce herself and share the impact she made during her Miss Tourism reign. You have 45 seconds. The speech is delivered from memory, with no note cards or electronic devices. The goal is confidence, clarity, authenticity and proof that you used your title with intention.

DELIVERY CHOICES

- Podium or wireless microphone.
- Younger contestants may use a riser or box.
- Speak clearly and at a steady pace.
- Show what you did, not only what you hoped to do.

What judges want to hear: a memorable first impression, clear content, genuine delivery, specific impact and readiness to represent. Use real examples from your titleholder year. Specific stories are stronger than general statements.

Wardrobe: light blue cocktail dress. Choose an age-appropriate style you can stand, walk and speak comfortably in.

Evening Gown (25%)

Elegance is how you carry yourself, not what the gown costs.

Wardrobe standard: all age groups wear a floor-length evening gown. Choose the color and style that best suits your age, personality, figure and comfort. Judges are instructed not to judge the cost of the gown.

JUDGES ARE LOOKING FOR

- Overall impression and confident presence.
- Poise, grace and natural warmth.
- A gown that fits well and moves beautifully.
- Age-appropriate styling and presentation.
- Hair, makeup and accessories that support the total look.
- Grace and composure under stage pressure.

STAGE STRATEGY

- Practice in the exact shoes and gown you will wear.
- Know how your hem moves on turns and stairs.
- Keep your expression alive. Don't "freeze" into pageant mode.
- Sell the gown through confidence, not choreography.
- Make comfort part of your styling decision.

The goal is a memorable presence. Your gown should support you; it should never overpower you.

Stage Layout & Instructions

- For all stage competitions, wait at the stage entrance to hear your name called.
- Walk to the center X and wait for the photographer's thumbs-up.
- Other than that, there is no specific walk pattern.
- The wood floor in front of the stage is for Talent.

Yearbook, Spotlights & Ads

Be seen. Be celebrated. Be part of the experience.

Spotlight Pages, advertising and Good Luck Wishes give contestants, families, businesses, sponsors and community supporters a meaningful way to become part of the Miss Tourism journey. Every purchase helps Miss Tourism keep creating opportunities, recognition, prizes, production and memorable experiences for the girls and women in our program.

Everything is due April 1, 2027: Spotlight artwork, ad artwork, Good Luck Wishes, your yearbook photo and yearbook sponsor list changes. Late submissions may not be guaranteed placement.

Your Complimentary Yearbook Feature

Every contestant who attends Finals gets her photo and sponsor list in the official Miss Tourism Pageants Yearbook, plus one complimentary souvenir yearbook.

- Photo due April 1, 2027. Late photos may not make the yearbook, promotions or People's Choice.
- Upload up to two of your best looks as JPG, JPEG or PNG. Choose a happy, polished image with no crowns or sashes.
- Only submit photos you have permission to use. Parents or guardians give permission for minors.
- List up to 10 sponsors, separated by commas (for example: Smith Family Dentistry, Aunt Lisa & Uncle Mike, Southern Grace Boutique, Anderson Realty Group, Bella Rose Photography, Friends & Family). You can update your list until April 1, 2027.

Your Contestant Spotlight Page

Every package includes one required full-page Spotlight. Every contestant has a story worth celebrating, and your Spotlight Page lets you show who you are beyond the stage. A Spotlight Page is more than an advertisement. It's a way to celebrate the person behind the title.

YOUR PAGE CAN INCLUDE:

- Professional or favorite photos (up to two)
- Your Miss Tourism title
- Accomplishments
- Community involvement
- Platform or service work
- Personal goals
- Sponsor recognition
- Family support and special messages
- Favorite moments from your Miss Tourism journey
- Your favorite quote

Let your contestant shine: families may celebrate a contestant, sponsors may feature the contestant they support, and contestants may use their page to introduce themselves, share their platform or highlight the work they're doing in their community. This is her opportunity to be seen, celebrated and remembered.

What to send: your ad layout or a rough draft, any logos or graphics, up to two contestant photos and any special instructions for the designer.

Spotlight & Ad Prizes

Sell Spotlight Pages and ads and earn prizes along the way. Every level receives an award certificate, plaque or trophy for the final level reached. Each full page of Good Luck Wishes (20 wishes) counts as one qualifying page.

QUALIFYING FULL PAGES SOLD	PRIZES
5 pages	All optional fees waived (no cash given)
10 pages Cover Girl	Everything at the 5-page level, plus a crown, a Cover Girl sash and a prize from the Prize Table
11+ pages Miss Tourism Visionary	The contestant with the most Spotlight Pages and ads sold in each age group wins the Miss Tourism Visionary sash, a World crown and a $3,000 prize package

More sponsor prizes coming!

Submit early: please don't wait until the final day to submit your ads. We're creating the book now, and early submissions are always appreciated.

Business Advertising

Miss Tourism welcomes businesses, organizations, professionals and sponsors who want to support our contestants while promoting their brand. Use the Ad Space Order Form for each ad sold.

AD SIZE	PRICE	BEST FOR
Full page	$200	Maximum visibility for businesses, sponsors, organizations and full-page contestant recognition
Half page	$100	Local businesses, contestant sponsors, salons, boutiques and community organizations
Quarter page / business card	$75	Smaller business ads, sponsor recognition or community messages

Who can advertise? Businesses, community organizations, sponsors, professional services, salons and boutiques, photographers, restaurants, real estate professionals, medical and dental offices, dance studios and fitness centers, schools and civic organizations, employers and contestant supporters. You don't have to be connected to a contestant to advertise with Miss Tourism.

Why it matters: advertising does more than fill pages. It helps fund contestant prizes and awards, event production and staging, venue and event expenses, judges and event operations, contestant recognition, special activities, promotional and media opportunities, sponsor-supported awards, program materials and additional titleholder opportunities.

Your support helps us create the stage. The contestants bring the courage, personality and purpose. Together, we create the experience.

Contestants: Build Your Support Team

Reach out to people and businesses in your community. Think about who already knows you, supports you or would be excited to be part of your journey: your favorite local restaurant, hair salon or boutique, photographer, dentist or doctor, real estate agent, dance studio or gym, employer, a family-owned business, a community or civic organization, your school or coach, or a local professional.

Tell them about your Miss Tourism journey. Share why you're competing and what your title means to you. Invite them to become part of your experience. A sponsor isn't simply buying an advertisement. They're becoming part of your story.

Good Luck Wishes

A small message can mean so much.

Good Luck Wishes are an affordable way for family, friends, businesses, teachers, coaches and supporters to send a special message to a Miss Tourism contestant in the Official Commemorative Program Book. They're different from full-page Spotlight Pages and paid advertising.

THE FACTS	DETAILS
Price	$10.00 per Good Luck Wish
Placement	Up to 20 Good Luck Wishes per program page
Deadline	April 1, 2027
Form	Good Luck Wish Tracking Sheet (collect and organize up to 10 wishes)

A Good Luck Wish can be: encouraging or inspirational, proud or sentimental, funny or lighthearted, or short and sweet, from a family member, friend, business, teacher, coach or supporter.

What may be included: the supporter's name or business name, a short good luck message, and one phone number or website, when applicable.

EXAMPLES

GOOD LUCK, EMMA! We are so proud of you! Shine bright and enjoy every moment. Love, Mom, Dad & Family

YOU'VE GOT THIS, SOPHIA! Believe in yourself and have fun. We are cheering for you! Your Dance Team

- All messages must be family-friendly and appropriate for all ages.
- Submit each message exactly as you want it printed. Carefully check names, titles, spelling, punctuation, phone numbers and websites.

Why Good Luck Wishes matter: funds raised help Miss Tourism support contestant recognition, prizes, production, special experiences and more opportunities throughout the program. Each message also becomes part of a keepsake contestants can look back on long after Finals.

Counts toward prizes: each full page of Good Luck Wishes (20 wishes) counts as one qualifying page toward Spotlight & Ad Prizes.

People's Choice & the Miss Tourism Ambassador

People's Choice is free to enter for eligible contestants. Your yearbook photo is used for online voting. Voting runs March 1 – April 17, 2027. Every vote helps fund opportunities, scholarships, trips, titles and prizes for our titleholders, plus our Anti-Bullying Campaign and T.H.I.N.K. Blue Diamond Gala & Fun Extras

Blue Diamond Gala: Friday, July 23, 2027 at 7:45 PM

A night of bonding, photos, dancing and so much fun, with the State Sweets Awards.

WHO	WHAT TO WEAR
Worlds contestants	Light blue cocktail dress, above the knee, with your Miss Tourism crown and sash
National contestants	Light blue cocktail dress, above the knee, with your crown and sash or sash only
Returning Queens	White cocktail dress
Legacy Queens	Dark blue gown or cocktail dress
Guests	Nice business casual or formal. No jeans.

State Sweets Table

Every contestant brings a sweet treat known in her state or area for the State Sweets table at the Gala. Please bring your sweet treat in a pretty container for the table, with each treat wrapped individually. Small treats make a sweeter world!

Treasure Exchange (optional, sign-up only)

A gift exchange at the Blue Diamond Gala. Each participant is assigned another participant to give a gift to.

- Gifts should be new, thoughtful and age-appropriate, $20–$25, never more than $25.
- Wrap your gift and label it clearly with TO and FROM.
- Bring it to the gift collection table at check-in.
- Only sign up if you're committed. Once names are assigned, another contestant is counting on you.

Gift ideas for any age: LED compact makeup mirror, travel garment steamer, clear garment bag, ring light phone clip, satin robe, velvet travel jewelry organizer, sash magnets, crown storage box, backstage slippers, insulated tumbler, portable power bank, clear makeup pouch, engraved luggage tag, logo tote bag, custom passport holder, satin-lined interview journal, rhinestone signature pen, mini business card case or a custom Tourism Christmas ornament. Miss Tourism colors are light blue with dark blue accents and white.

Treasures Around the World

Share a small gift bag that gives other contestants a glimpse of your home state or country. Fill it with a few items that are unique, meaningful and easy to share:

- Candies unique to your state
- A pin from your local tourism office
- Something made in or from your state
- Any small item that represents your state in a special way

Attach the printable card with your name, state, something unique about your state and something people may not know about you. Put a photo of you with your sash clearly showing on the back, and print it on white card stock. Keep bags small, thoughtful and easy to carry home.

Gifts for the Director & Staff

A gift is never expected or necessary. Your smiles and kindness all weekend are already a gift to our team. If you'd like to bring something, we kindly ask for restaurant or meal gift cards only. Our staff is on the go from early morning to late at night during Finals, so meal cards are something we truly use. Mugs, candles, plaques and baskets are sweet, but they get hard to carry home when many families have the same idea.

SPONSORSHIP REQUEST LETTER

More Than a Crown... A Brighter Tomorrow

Contestant: _____

Miss Tourism Title: _____

Dear Potential Sponsor,

My name is _____, and I am honored to represent _____ as _____ Tourism.

On July 22-25, 2027, I will travel to Nashville, Tennessee, where I will compete for the title of Worlds Miss Tourism in my age division at the Miss Tourism Pageants Finals.

This opportunity is about much more than competing for a crown. Throughout my Miss Tourism journey, I am encouraged to become involved in my community, represent tourism, build confidence, develop communication and leadership skills, and use my title to make a positive difference.

As I prepare for Finals, I am seeking sponsors who would like to become part of my journey. Sponsorships can help with expenses including pageant fees, advertising, People's Choice, wardrobe, travel, accommodations, appearances, and other costs associated with participating in the Finals.

No sponsorship is too small. Every contribution adds up and is sincerely appreciated. Whether you are a local business, organization, family member, friend, or community supporter, your support helps make this experience possible.

Sponsors may also have opportunities to be recognized through Miss Tourism advertising and promotional materials when applicable.

IMPORTANT SPONSORSHIP PAYMENT INFORMATION

General sponsorship funds should be given directly to me or, if I am a minor, to my parent or legal guardian. Checks should be made payable to the contestant or parent/guardian rather than Miss Tourism Pageants.

If you prefer to pay a specific pageant fee directly to Miss Tourism Pageants, please contact us before payment is made. The Miss Tourism National Office can create a personalized payment link for the specific approved fee you wish to sponsor. Sponsors should pay only the amount that will be retained by Miss Tourism Pageants for that designated expense.

Sponsorship contributions are not guaranteed to qualify as tax-deductible donations. Sponsors should consult their own tax professional regarding any tax questions.

I would be truly grateful to have you as part of my journey to Nashville as I work toward becoming a Worlds Miss Tourism Queen.

Thank you for supporting me, believing in my goals, and helping me make the most of this incredible opportunity.

Sincerely,
