Miss Tourism Pageant 2027

Dear Future Miss Tourism Contestant,

Welcome, and thank you for taking this moment to explore what could be a truly life-changing opportunity.

Choosing to enter a pageant is about your potential, what could be. It is growing into the person you want to become. Finally, it is about learning the difference between self-esteem and confidence, so, you can truly embrace a future where you can take on the world, and know you are capable.

The fun part is the connections, and discovering just how powerful your voice and presence can be.

Miss Tourism was created with purpose. This is more than a competition, it is a platform designed to uplift, empower, and open doors. We believe every contestant should feel valued, supported, and inspired from the very beginning of her journey. Whether your goal is to build confidence, gain experience, make a difference in your community, or pursue exciting opportunities in media, travel, and beyond, this organization is here to support you.

As you review this handbook, my hope is that you feel clarity, excitement, and confidence in your decision. We want you to fully understand the experience, expectations, and opportunities ahead so that you can choose what is right for you.

Every person who joins the Miss Tourism Pageants, brings something unique and meaningful. There is no single definition of beauty or success here, only the belief that who you are matters.

If you choose to enter, know that you are about to walk into a community built on integrity, respect, and collaboration. You will be encouraged to grow, to shine, and to represent something bigger than yourself.

No matter where your journey takes you, I am already proud of you for considering this step. With encouragement and belief in you,

Feri Lee
